Assured IP Broadband Service Terms

1. General

These Assured IP Broadband Service Terms should be read in conjunction with all other terms of the Contract.

2. Definitions and interpretation

2.1 Terms defined elsewhere in the Contract shall have the same meaning in these Assured Service Terms. The following definitions shall also apply.

Incident	a support or maintenance requirement or event relating to the Service
IP	internet protocol
ICMP	internet control message protocol
Planned Maintenance Hours	the period between 10pm and 6am UK time
RTD	round trip delay
Service	assured IP broadband

2.2 The rules of interpretation set out in the General Terms apply to these Assured IP Service Terms.

3. Voice Channels

3.1 Subject to:

3.1.1 the product type ordered by the Customer as detailed in an Order Form; and

3.1.2 the line conditions (determined by the distance from the exchange, state of the internal wiring and impact of external noise), the Service shall deliver the number of concurrent channels detailed in the table below.

Product Type	Available G.729 Channels	Available G.711 Channels
Assured 5	5	2
Assured 10	10	4
Assured 15	15	6

3.2 The target level for:

3.2.1 RTD is <80 milliseconds. RTD shall be measured for packets sent from the core network to the Customer router and then back again. 10 x 200-byte ICMP packets are sent every two minutes;

3.2.2 Jitter is <45 milliseconds. In order for voice to be intelligible, consecutive voice packets must arrive at regular intervals. Jitter describes the degree of variability in packet arrivals, which can be caused by bursts of data traffic or just too much traffic on the line; and

3.2.3 packet loss is <2%. Packet loss is measured in terms of packet delivery and is defined as the percentage of packets sent that reach their destination within a certain time. Packet loss is a common occurrence in data networks, but devices/applications are designed to simply request a retransmission of lost packets. Voice traffic can tolerate no more than a three percent loss of packets before callers experience disconcerting gaps in conversation.
