4.1 The Customer is responsible for ensuring that the Equipment is correct and appropriate for the Customer's intended use and requirements.

4.2 Onecom reserves the right to amend the specification or model of any of the Equipment if required by Applicable Law, if the manufacturer changes such specification or discontinues such model, or if stock of such model becomes otherwise unavailable, between the Effective Date and the time of despatch. Onecom will endeavour to ensure that any such substituted Equipment will be of equal or better quality.

4.3 Onecom shall deliver the Equipment to the Shipping Address.

4.4 Any lead times or dates quoted for delivery of the Equipment is approximate only, and time of delivery is not of the essence. The Equipment may be delivered by Onecom in advance of any dates quoted for delivery of the Equipment.

4.5 Delivery of the Equipment shall be completed on the arrival of the Equipment at the Shipping Address.

4.6 The Customer is under a duty to inspect the Equipment on delivery. In the event the Goods are defective on delivery, the Customer must notify Onecom within 48 hours from (and including) the time of delivery.

4.7 In the event the Customer does not notify Onecom in accordance with clause 4.6:

- 4.7.1 the Customer shall be deemed to have fully accepted the Goods; and
- 4.7.2 Onecom shall have no liability in respect of such Goods.

4.8 Delays in the delivery of Equipment shall not entitle the Customer to:

- 4.8.1 refuse to take delivery of the Equipment; or
- 4.8.2 claim damages; or
- 4.8.3 terminate all or part of the Contract, subject always to clause 20.2.

4.9 If the Customer delays or prevents delivery of the Equipment and/or fails to provide any instructions, documents, licences, consents or authorisations required to enable the Equipment to be delivered, Onecom may:

- 4.9.3 no less than 5 Business Days after first attempting delivery or notifying the Customer that the Equipment is ready for delivery, resell or otherwise dispose of part or all of the Equipment.

5 Equipment – warranties, replacements and returns

5.1 Equipment, where new, is provided with the benefit of, and subject to, the manufacturer's warranty and guarantee (Manufacturer's Warranty). Details of the Manufacturer's Warranty are set out on the relevant manufacturer's website or in the user guide or license relating to the Equipment (including the duration of any warranty period).

5.2 Equipment referred to as 'pre-owned' or 'nearly new' has been returned to Onecom by customers (usually during the first 14 days after delivery) with no reported faults. It has been tested to ensure it is fit for such purpose as held out by Onecom and of satisfactory quality (within the meaning of the Sale of Goods Act 1979, as amended). Pre-owned devices are provided with original accessories and user guides, and in original packaging whenever possible (but the Customer acknowledges that substitute packaging may be used).

5.3 Equipment referred to as 'refurbished' has been through a recycling programme. It has been tested to ensure it is fit for such purpose as held out by Onecom and of satisfactory quality (within the meaning of the Sale of Goods Act 1979, as amended). Refurbished devices are provided with a data cable and SIM key (where applicable), but without any other accessories or user guides, and not in original packaging.

5.4 Pre-owned and refurbished Equipment is supplied with the benefit of and subject to the Manufacturer's Warranty save that the warranty period shall be limited to 12 months from delivery.

5.5 Except as provided in this clause 5, Onecom shall have no liability to the Customer in respect of the failure of Equipment to comply with the applicable Manufacturer's Warranty.

5.6 Subject to clause 5.7, Onecom shall not be under any obligation to exchange, repair or replace Equipment or provide any refunds.

5.7 Where Equipment supplied to the Customer is or becomes faulty during the relevant Manufacturer's Warranty period and for a reason covered by the

Manufacturer's Warranty (which excludes the Customer's acts, omissions or misuse) the Customer acknowledges the following process applies, which is subject to the specific terms of the Manufacturer's Warranty, including any applicable 'Dead on Arrival' (DOA) period:

5.7.1 Manufacturers often designate a short DOA period (as little as 48 hours from time of delivery, varying by manufacturer). Faults reported within this period may be eligible for replacement, strictly subject to the manufacturer's assessment and policy. Onecom acts according to the manufacturer's determination. Failure to report a fault within the DOA period typically means it will be handled as a standard warranty repair. Customers must test Equipment immediately upon delivery.

5.7.2 The Customer should report the fault to Onecom's customer services team on 03300 888 999 as soon as possible, stating clearly when the fault was first identified.

5.7.3 The Customer must re-package the faulty Equipment and ensure that such Equipment and all original accessories are returned to Onecom (to Onecom Limited, Distribution Centre, 4400 Parkway, Whiteley, Fareham, Hampshire, PO15 7FJ (or as otherwise directed by Onecom)) at the Customer's cost and risk by such post or courier service as shall ensure proof of delivery and sufficient insurance to cover the full value of the Equipment.

5.7.4 Onecom shall inspect the returned Equipment and, where necessary, liaise with the manufacturer, whose assessment regarding warranty coverage (including DOA eligibility) is final.

5.7.5 Subject to the manufacturer's assessment and warranty/DOA policy confirmation, Onecom shall facilitate the remedy determined by the manufacturer, which may be repair, or (at the manufacturer's or Onecom's discretion, particularly if within a confirmed DOA period) replacement (subject to clause 5.8) or refund (of such sum as Onecom reasonably considers to be the current market value of the faulty Equipment):

5.8 The Customer acknowledges that, where it is determined (either by Onecom or the manufacturer) that the fault is not covered by the Manufacturer's Warranty (including DOA coverage), the Customer remains liable for all sums outstanding in respect of such item of Equipment and:

- 5.8.1 where the faulty Equipment can be repaired:
 - (a) the Customer shall return to Onecom all replacement Equipment (if any) supplied pursuant to clause 5.7.5 (at the Customer's cost and risk) or pay Onecom the full cost of such replacement Equipment; and
 - (b) at the Customer's option, Onecom shall (i) repair the faulty Equipment and the Customer shall pay the cost of repair, or (ii) return the faulty Equipment to the Customer at the Customer's cost and risk and the Customer shall pay a diagnostic fee as detailed in the Price Guide, or (iii) dispose of faulty Equipment in accordance with the Waste Electric and Electronic Equipment (WEEE) Regulations 2013 and the Customer shall pay a diagnostic fee as detailed in the Price Guide;

5.8.2 where the faulty Equipment cannot be repaired, the Customer shall pay Onecom the full cost of any replacement Equipment supplied pursuant to clause 5.7.5.

5.9 The Customer acknowledges and accepts that it is solely responsible for ensuring the backup of any important or confidential data stored on the Equipment prior to its return to Onecom and the Customer agrees that Onecom will not be liable if any such data is lost or corrupted during any process set out in clauses 5.7 and 5.8.

5.10 Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this clause 5, no liability will be accepted under any Equipment warranty or guarantee where any Customer invoice is overdue.

6 Risk and retention of title

6.1 The risk in the Goods shall pass to the Customer on completion of delivery.

6.2 Notwithstanding delivery and the passing of risk in the Goods, or any other provision of the Contract, legal and beneficial title to the Goods shall not pass to the Customer until Onecom has received payment in full (in cash or cleared funds).

6.3 Until title to the Goods has passed to the Customer, the Customer shall:

- 6.3.1 keep accurate records of the location or keeper of the Goods and store them separately from all other goods held by the Customer so that they remain readily identifiable as Onecom's property;
- 6.3.2 maintain the Goods in satisfactory condition and in accordance with the relevant Manufacturer's Warranty and user guide;
- 6.3.3 keep them insured against all risks for their full replacement value from the date of delivery;
- 6.3.4 notify Onecom immediately if it becomes subject to any of the events listed in clauses 15.1.3 to 15.1.11; and
- 6.3.5 give Onecom such information relating to the Goods as Onecom may require from time to time.

6.4 If, before title to the Goods passes to the Customer, the Customer becomes subject to any of the events listed in clauses 15.1.3 to 15.1.12, or Onecom reasonably believes that any such event is about to happen and notifies the Customer accordingly, then, without limiting any other right or remedy Onecom may have, Onecom may at any time:

- 6.4.1 require the Customer at the Customer's own cost and expense to deliver up the Goods in its possession; or
- 6.4.2 without further notice enter any premises of the Customer or of any third party where the Goods may be kept or stored in order to recover them.

6.5 The Customer shall at all times ensure that any and all parties that seek to assert any right or claim against the Customer are made fully aware that the Goods are subject to reservation of title by Onecom and that the Goods are not the property of the Customer.

6.6 If, for whatever reason, any party seeks to assert any right or claim against the Customer or the Goods, the Customer shall at its own cost and expense defend any such right or claim such as to preserve the reservation of title of the Goods and/or at Onecom's request join any proceedings brought by Onecom in relation to the Goods.

7 Third Party Software

- 7.1 Third Party Software is licensed under and subject to the terms of the applicable license agreement.
- 7.2 The Customer expressly acknowledges that:

- 7.3 Onecom does not make any warranties concerning the performance or functionality of Third Party Software (including or any services related thereto) distributed by Onecom and hereby disclaims and excludes all such warranties including, without limitation, warranties for merchantability, fitness for any particular purpose, or satisfactory quality whether at common law or in contract or tort or by statute or otherwise.

- 9.4 The Customer shall pay each invoice submitted by Onecom within the number of days from the date of such invoice as set out in the Order Form (if no such number is so set out then within 14 days) (Due Date), and in full and in cleared funds to a bank account nominated in writing by Onecom.
- 9.5 Payment shall be made on or before the Due Date notwithstanding that delivery or provision of the Goods may not have taken place and/or that the title to the Goods has not passed to the Customer.

9.6 Onecom may credit assess the Customer from time to time to determine the credit limit on the Customer's account. The Customer will provide Onecom with any information it reasonably requires for this. If Onecom is not satisfied as to the creditworthiness of the Customer, it may 9.8 The Customer will pay all reasonable costs that Onecom incurs when recovering any overdue amount, including debt collection agency and legal costs.

9.9 If the Customer disputes the amount of any Onecom invoice in good faith and on bona fide grounds:

- 9.9.1 the Customer shall pay any undisputed portion of the invoice;

9.11 The Customer shall pay all amounts due under the Contract in full without any deduction or withholding except as required by Applicable Law and the Customer shall not be entitled to assert any credit, set-off or counterclaim against Onecom in order to justify withholding payment in whole or in part. Onecom may, without limiting its other rights and remedies, set-off any amount owing to it by the Customer against any amount payable by Onecom to the Customer.
